Kapitel 1:

Coming home from work
Sitting on a couch
Watching a black hole
On the white painted wall

What is it that takes you away
It always changes your mind
Carefull what you see
Reality or dream?
Brainwashed like you are

Conservative stuff, everyone's the same...
Never care if it's right, the only thing that Matters is the mainstream
Lie or truth that's not important

Don't give in to those who share
The mind with others, the holy truth
What is it that changes your life
Think again the answer's there

Stay away from all the ... {pain}
Isolated in your ... {shame}
Just say it, tell me what you think
It's not like I care anyway
