Come and get me

(einzig und allein meinem Engelchen gewidmet <3)

If your world turns completely against you, come and get me - I'll offer a shoulder to cry onto.

If you world gets all pitch-black,
come and get me - I'll bring the light along.

If your world threatens to break apart,
come and get me - I'll be the pillar to bear the weight.

And if your world is bursting around you,
come and get me - I'll put it back together.

Though I know I cannot always be there for you,
I'll try my best and do what I can.
