

Love, hate, kiss, kill

Von Shinray

Kapitel 2: rainbow

what are you really?
saw you, feel you.
look into my eyes to the soul over Losing control of myself.

It looks as if you cry
through your mask.
like a shadow you pervade me.
pull me in your spell.

cry me a rainbow

Come, please come and take me with you.
With in your world, which is so hidden.
Far away from what is it.
where there's only you and I can be.
Hypnosis, hypnotize me

I'm just a fool
I think if you just want my impure body and not my little heart.
To save what can be saved.

cry me a rainbow

Show me your life, your world.
what makes you to be.
show me your wonderland
where your dreams have been lost.

Come, please come and take me with you.
With in your world, which is so hidden.
Far away from what is it.
where there's only you and I can be.

Hypnosis, hypnotize me

cry me a rainbow

everything you say takes me away.
far away from my soul, back to your side.
stay with me, do not go away.
do not say goodbye

Come, please come and take me with you.
With in your world, which is so hidden.
Far away from what is it.
where there's only you and I can be.
Hypnosis, hypnotize me

cry me a rainbow
